

Welcome to the 2015 DachsiePalooza

We hope that there will be more dachshunds than anyone knows what to do with to help us celebrate the 6th year of the DachsiePalooza.

The DachsiePalooza Team is very excited to again have this year's event in beautiful Louisville, Colorado at Louisville Community Park 955 Bella Vista Dr.

We are also excited to have as our special guest, Jeff Young, DVM, star of DR. JEFF, ROCKY MOUNTAIN VET Animal Planet's newest reality series. Dr. Jeff's staff, many of whom you will probably recognize from the Dr. Jeff series, will also be available for your questions. Dr. Jeff and his staff will also be holding a small microchip clinic for anyone wanting to microchip their dog for a small fee.

Your purchase of silent auction items contributes significantly to the total of what the DachsiePalooza brings in for CCDR. Please don't be shy about your bids. Your generous donations go directly to the CCDR vetting fund. As many of you know we do not hold back. If one of our rescues needs vetting for any reason we get it done before an adoption takes place.

The sometimes-hilarious Dachshund Races are for all the dachshunds and dachshund wanna-be's.

Put your creative side to work and see if you can out-do some of our previous costume contest winners. There is an entry fee for the Dachshund races, but, for the other fun contests we are requesting a donation be made to CCDR.

We are going to try the coloring contest again this year. An awesome Colorado artist & dachshund lover designed the image to color and donated it to the DachsiePalooza.

We are looking forward to seeing, meeting and talking to our supporters, adopters, friends and everyone else.
